

Dear Parents and Carers,

To once again echo my message to you on Monday... Hurrah! and a warm welcome back to everyone as we celebrate being back together again and on the road to 'normality'! At long last we are all back together again and as a team we have been both wowed and proud by just how quickly and confidently the children have settled back into school. It was wonderful to see the children's smiling faces and the pure excitement that was evident as they reconnected with their friends and dived headlong into the fun learning experiences that awaited them. Our children never cease to amaze me at just how confident and resilient they are, and I hope that this brings you all a little comfort too.

You should feel so very proud not only that you made it but also that you prepared your children so well for their return to school. I hope you are not too disappointed at having to relinquish your teaching duties and return once again to your own jobs! We know it hasn't been easy but you have navigated your way through this and supported your children brilliantly and we now look forward to picking up from where you left off. With this in mind, we will be sending you further information next week regarding our Parents' Consultation Meetings, where we will share with you all of the information from our key learning activities undertaken over these first few weeks back together.
