Estimating

Use any container within the home and any countable objects that can be used to fill the container. Ask your child to guess/estimate how many of the countable objects (this could be small Lego bricks, beads or any other small object that is easy to count) will it take to fill the container you have chosen to use…..this could be a glass, small box or a bowl. Have fun!!!