

is or are

Complete these sentences by using the word is or the word are.

1. My bed                      very soft.

2. The birds                      quiet at night.

3. We                      going to see a film.

4. The cat                      sat by the fire.

5. Here                      my best friend.

6. There                      28 children in my class.

7. We                      all going on holiday.

8. There                      some people waiting to see you.

9. There                      a dog barking next door.