

DRAW A WORD ON MY BACK

Success in this game requires the child to transfer a physical sensation to a mental picture and retain a short series of mental pictures in their head to correctly identify the word or object.

To play

One player uses their finger to 'write' a word or draw an object on the back of the second player.

The second player tries to identify the word or object.

Players switch positions and take turns being the 'writer' and guesser.